

Combine and Divide Figures - II

1. Look at the figure shown below and answer the following questions.

a. How many squares are in the picture? _____

b. How many triangles make a square in the picture? _____

2. Divide each of the following figures in two triangles.

3. Combine each of the following pair of figures to form:-

a. Quadrilateral

and

Figure:

b. Pentagon

and

Figure:

4. True or False?

- a. An equilateral triangle can't be divided into two congruent triangles. _____
- b. A rectangle can't be formed by combining two squares. _____
- c. A trapezoid can be formed by combination of two appropriate triangles. _____
- d. A hexagon can be divided in to 6 congruent triangles. _____
- e. A square can only be formed by combining equilateral triangles. _____

turn over →

5) Circle the correct Figure (below) that can be combined to form a rhombus.

6) Circle the correct Figure (below) that can be combined to form a rectangle.

7) Circle the Figure (below) that can be combined completes a circle.

