

SETTING

Describe the setting in your own words:

Using evidence from the text:

Answer one of the following questions:

1. How does the author use the setting to build the mood for the story?
2. Imagine if the story happened in a different setting. Where else might the story be set? How would this new setting change the characters and plot?
3. Do you think the setting is a good location for the story? Why or why not?
