Library Task Card

No Internet Needed	No Internet Needed	No Internet Needed	No Internet Needed
Create a postcard. On one side draw a picture of where you wish you could be. On the other side, write a note to your school librarian telling him or her what you are doing.	READ a book and write a book review.	Read a magazine or a newspaper. You can read it with your parent or caregiver and you can read the newspaper or magazine in any language you choose!	Read a book to your younger brother or sister, pet, parent, or stuffed animal. Don't forget to hold it up so they can see the pictures. You can read a book in any language you choose.
No Internet Needed!	Internet Needed	No Internet Needed	No Internet Needed
Create your own dictionary. Make it a dictionary about a topic you like. For example, brainstorm all the words you know	StoryLine Online Great website where actors read storybooks from classics to recently published	Design a bookmark! Use a notecard, piece of paper, sticky note, or whatever you have! Be creative!	How many words can you make using the letters in the phrase:
related to dogs. Put the words in alphabetical order and write your own definitions	picture books. This site is fair use. https://www.storylineonline.net		Keep Calm and Carry a Book!
No Internet Needed	Internet Needed	No Internet Needed	No Internet Needed
Take a few moments and observe what's happening outside the window nearest to you. Write a poem about how you feel or what you see.	Have your parent or caregiver take a look at author Kate Messner's website. There are tons of read-alouds by authors to enjoy while you are at home: https://tinyurl.com/vac8148	Read a "How To" book (cookbook, craft book, etc.) Make or do an activity in the book. Create your own "how to" of your favorite activity.	Write a biography. You can talk to your parent, your grandparent, your caregiver, aunts, uncles, anyone you know! Write the story of their life. You can write their biography in any language you choose.