

Mrs. Wine's Summer Bookshelf

The front porch is one of my favorite places to read during the summer! After visiting the Westover Public Library, you'll find me outside, enjoying my new books. These are just some of the books I'm looking forward to reading this summer. If you read one of these too, be sure to tell me about it when I see you in the fall! And don't forget to email us a picture of where you read during the summer, too!

Blippo & Beep is a new series that has been compared to Elephant & Piggy. I can't wait to read it! The newest book in the Teeny Houdini series, The Giant Panda Plan, comes out in June and I'm so excited to spend more time with Bessie Lee, the main character! I love the artwork in Pokko and the Drum and look forward to reading the story by the author/illustrator Matthew Forsythe.

I can't resist short stories about one of my favorite summer treats, ice cream, so I'm looking forward to reading The Ice Cream Machine written by the author of Dragon Loves Tacos. I recently discovered a new series by the author of The Unwanteds series. The first book, The Forgotten Five: Map of Flames, sounds like a great fantasy read for the summer. The Secret Garden is one of my childhood favorites, so I'm looking forward to reading the modern retelling of the classic in graphic novel form. I love watching baking shows during the summer, and reading about one in The $150,000 Rugelach sounds just as fun!
